What Is Waves Season

Waves Season is the cruise industry's prime booking period, typically running January through March. Cruise lines compete for early-year bookings by offering some of their strongest promotions of the year.

Travelers can often find discounted fares, reduced deposits, onboard credit, kids sail free offers, and valuable inclusions like drink packages, Wi-Fi, airfare, or excursion credits. While the base price isn't always the lowest, the bundled perks can create significant overall savings.

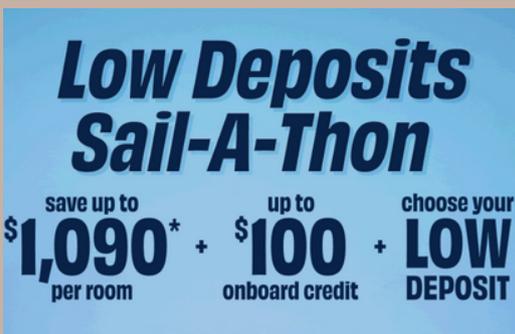

Bottom line: Waves Season is one of the best times to book a cruise for added value, flexibility, and choice—especially on popular sailings. Here are a few...

Royal Caribbean – Book at least 9 months prior to sail date and receive $50 onboard credit

Disney Cruise Line 20% off voyage fare and $250 onboard credit for select sailings

Carnival Cruise Line

Norwegian Cruise Line

Virgin Voyages

Summer Fun at an All-Inclusive Resort

If you haven't planned your 2026–2027 vacations yet, consider an all-inclusive resort. It's an easy, stress-free way to travel—and there are some fantastic savings available right now.

Hyatt Zilara Riviera Maya isn't just all-inclusive—it's adults-only. Even better, you can enjoy savings of up to 72% on select stays.

Also in Riviera Maya, the all-inclusive Catalonia offers exceptional value with up to 70% off select stays. Package your vacation to unlock even more savings.

We can't forget the all-inclusive RIU Riviera Maya—home of the famous RIU Party. Enjoy music, dancing, and nonstop fun, with savings of up to 56% on select RIU vacations.

American Airlines Offers Passengers An Apology

As Winter Storm Fern continues to disrupt the nation's air travel network, American Airlines is taking decisive action to ensure travelers reach their destinations. "On behalf of everyone at American, I want to assure our customers that it's been all hands on deck to keep our operations moving," said Heather Garboden, Chief Customer Officer, in a message to passengers on Tuesday.

Five of American Airlines' nine hubs have been heavily impacted by Winter Storm Fern, with its largest hub, Dallas-Fort Worth (DFW), hit hardest. On Tuesday, DFW led the nation in disruptions: 411 delays and 516 cancellations, most involving American flights—including 428 mainline cancellations and 48 more from PSA and Envoy Air.

American is urging travelers this week to monitor the mobile app and website for updates or use the airline's travel waiver to change flights at no cost.
